++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Becoming wet and windy into Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Remaining showers should die away into the evening, however cloud becoming extensive as it thickens and lowers. A wet and breezy end to the night is then expected, with persistent and occasionally heavy rain developing widely. Colder than recent nights. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tuesday:
Wet and windy, with a rainband stalling over the region to bring persistent and occasionally heavy downpours, these coupled with coastal gales and strong winds generally. Drier during the evening. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Becoming drier, wamer and brighter on the whole in this period, especially in the east, with winds also less strong. Wednesday probably brightest. Early fog patches possible Thursday and Friday.
